

LOVESPELL

Mind's Eye

Hot blooded feeling
When she walks into the room
Don't know the reason
That I want you like I do
You got my attention
Now you're aiming for my heart
Said I was leaving
Now I'm sitting in your car
Ahh

Love spell

We drive past the city lights where no one
Is around
If you should leave me here
I never would be found
Now that you got me
Let's see what you have in store
I know that you're bad for me
But I keep wanting more
Ahh
