Mind's Eye

I don't wanna hear your words
I just wanna make you hurt
Don't say you're sorry
I know you lie
You say I'm crazy
You might be right
And now you're giving me all your heart
Should've thought of that from the start

I would take a hammer
To their heads
If they ever hurt you honey
Pull their teeth
Make em wish
They were dead
If you ask me too darling

I just wanna feel you here
I can make them disappear

Don't seem so shaken
The weights off your chest

Just sit down baby
I'll do the rest

And now their sayin
Their Givin me all their heart
But we know that they won't get too far

I would take a hammer
To their heads
If they ever hurt you honey
Pull their teeth
Make em wish
They were dead
If you ask me too darling

I would take a hammer
To their heads
If they ever hurt you honey
Pull their teeth
Make em wish
They were dead
If you ask me too darling
