

Oh No!

Mindy Gledhill

Oh no! I fell in love with you
And you fell in love with me, what shall we do?
Oh no! What's happened to my heart?
It pitters and it pats two beats apart!

Oh no! I am a victim of
A cupid and his arrow up above
Oh no! I haven't got a chance
Against the superpowers of romance

Here we go, here we go
Like a roller coaster high and low
And there's no returning from this twisting turning we are Caught up in the undertow
And we're never, ever gonna slow down

Oh no! There's danger up ahead
So say your prayers we might as well be dead
Oh no! If we are going to die
I'll let you give me one last kiss goodbye

Born to live for love
Born to wander free
Two believers in serendipity
All the paths we'll cross
All the hands we'll play
So fantastically unafraid

Oh, no! I fell in love with you
And you fell in love with me, what shall we do?
