

Small Enough

Mindy Gledhill

Oh, great God be small enough to hear me now
There were times when I was crying
From the dark of Daniel's den
And I have asked you once or twice if
You would part the sea again
But tonight I do not need a fiery pillar in the sky
Just want to know you're gonna hold me if I start to cry
Oh, great God, be small enough to hear me now

Oh, great God, be close enough (close enough) to feel you now
(Oh, great God, be close to me)
There have been moments when I could not face Goliath on my own
And how could I forget we marched around our share of Jerichos
But I will not be setting out a fleece for you tonight
Just want to know that everything will be all right
Oh, great God be close enough to feel you now

All praise and all the honor be
To that God of ancient mysteries
Whose every sign and wonder
Turn the pages of our history
But tonight my heart is heavy
And I cannot keep from whispering this prayer
Are you there?

And I know you could leave writing on a wall that's just for me
Or send wisdom while I'm sleeping like in solemn and sweet dreams
But I don't need the strength of Samson
Or a chariot in the end
Just want to know that you still know how many hairs are on my head
Oh, great God (are you small enough?)
Be small enough to hear me now
