

Returning Fire With Fire

Mindy Smith

Revenge is bitter sweet
A basic human instinct
Try to fight it but it's calling me
So loud that I can't even think

The memory that you left me with
There's something I won't soon forget
Plays through mind like a bad film
And nothing can erase it

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
I'm gonna see it through
Returning fire with fire

What goes around comes around
And finds its way back somehow
It might leave you alone for now
But it's hiding in the underground

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
I'm gonna see it through
Returning fire with fire

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
I'm gonna see it through
Returning fire with fire

Pacing back and forth like a cat in a cage
Reving like an engine ready to race
You'll wanna start running cause it's heading out your way, yeah

Pacing back and forth like a cat in a cage
Reving like an engine ready to race
You'll wanna start running cause it's heading out your way

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
I'm gonna see it through
Returning fire with fire

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
I'm gonna see it through
Returning fire with fire
