You're like a coffee, you're a drug
I'm addicted to your love

You come and go, I miss you so
I try to forget, still miss you so
And you take, take, take, take, take
I'mma brake, brake, brake, brake, brake
You come and go, I miss you so
I try to forget, still miss you so
And you take, take, take, take, take
I'mma brake, brake, brake, brake, brake

You're like a coffee, you're a drug
I'm addicted to your love

I'm addicted to your love
I'm addicted to your love
I'm addicted to your love

Why you, why you choose to break my heart
And why you, why you make me fall apart
Like a nine to five, like a nine to five
Like a nine to five, like a nine to five
Why you, why you choose to break my heart
And why you, why you make me lose my mind
Like a nine to five, like a nine to five
Like a nine to five, like a nine to five

You're like a coffee, you're a drug
I'm addicted to your love

I'm addicted to your love
I'm addicted to your love
I'm addicted to your love
