

Heart Instructions

Minelli

My heart wasn't made to be broken
My heart was made for love
And if we left some words unspoken
Baby speak your mind

You know I care about it
And I love the way we started
Don't wanna end up brokenhearted
And I'm giving, yeah I'm giving

Giving you my heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

Heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

Heart instructions
(Just to have the perfect start)
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

You sohuld hold me and listen to me darling
You should press my buttons right
And could you be by my side when I'm calling?
When I speak my mind?

You know I care about it
And I love the way we started
Don't wanna end up brokenhearted
And I'm giving, yeah I'm giving

Giving you my heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

Heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

Now I finally met someone
And I don't need to run
Don't wanna run
And I want us to become one
To call you my love
That's why I'm

Giving you my heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part

Heart instructions
Just to have the perfect start
Giving you the right directions
And you, you're the scribe of every part
Every, every part
