

Separated

Minelli

Mhmm, ye-yeah
Even if I tried to wake up
Without feelings, to be torned up
I'm still here waitin'
Mhmm (Mhmm)

And even if I try to run from you
When my soul breathes for you
I'm still here cryin', mhmm
'Cause when I talk to myself
I realise how much you mean to me
And I just want you to be around me, around me

I breathe for you
And you breathe for me
So why are we separated?
I breathe for you
And you breathe for me
So why are we separated?
Separated...

And if I cry for you, smile for you, everything for you
Hoping to turn to you
When I'm lost without you
I'm still here waitin'

And even if I try to run from you
When my soul breathes only for you
I'm still here waitin' and waitin' and waitin' and waitin'
'Cause when I talk to myself
I realise how much you mean to me
And I just want you to be around me, around me

I breathe for you
And you breathe for me
So why are we separated?
I breathe for you
And you breathe for me
So why are we separated?
Separated...
