

Pinky promises, that's all we have I guess
No happy melodies, or is it just a test?
It's us against the distance
With no feelings to confess

You know I love you oh
But you're far, but you're far, far away, a million thoughts
Think I'm going insane, think I'm going insane
Should I follow, should I follow?

My heart goes boom dadadum, boom, should I follow?
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
It goes boom dadadum, boom dadadum
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

Boom dadadum, boom, should I follow?
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
It goes boom dadadum, boom dadadum
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

Pinky promises, remember what you said
You promised me the moon, now I wish to see you soon
It's time for you to choose
I'm tired of breakfast with my booze

You know I love you oh
But you're far, but you're far, far away, a million thoughts
Think I'm going insane, think I'm going insane
Should I follow, should I follow?

My heart goes boom dadadum, boom, should I follow?
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
It goes boom dadadum, boom dadadum
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

Boom dadadum, boom, should I follow?
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
It goes boom dadadum, boom dadadum
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow

My heart goes boom dadadum, boom, should I follow?
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
It goes boom dadadum, boom dadadum
Should I stay or should I go or should I cut tomorrow
