悄悄 悄悄 悄悄
悄悄悄悄 悄悄 悄悄 悄悄 悄悄
Oh, please
I wish you could hear my lullaby

A faded moonlight
Lightly covers the streets
Have you been feeling alone?
A shoulder to cry on
You have hardly had one
Like the coming of spring
Even nights that seem to last forever
Will too pass, so don't you worry
I wish you could hear my lullaby

Each night, before the light starts to shine
It feels like the time has stopped
Mmm, don't worry
It's okay to rest a while
Embraced by the darkness of this night

Close your eyes with my lullaby
Hope you heard
And the once distant memories
Will magically find their place

If the sigh that you've been holding in Bursts out with the break of dawn
Don't you worry
I wish you could hear my lullaby

Each night, before the light starts to shine
It feels like the time has stopped
Mmm, don't worry
It's okay to rest a while
Embraced by the darkness of this night

Close your eyes with my lullaby
Hope you heard

And the once distant memories
Will magically find their place

When you wake up
Just like we were before
We will be together

Like the coming of spring
Nights that seem to last forever will too pass
Oh, please
I wish you could hear my lullaby
