Miniature Tigers

You call me up when you're lonely and you need someone
Am I a fool to come running?
I'm coming over even though I know I shouldn't
You'll only hurt me again

Daylight coming through the blinds
I can't believe we're here again
Yeah, it's over
I can see it in your eyes
But we're still together tonight

We locked eyes in the soft sunlight
Maybe we stayed too long, long
We're both acting like it's alright
Like you never
Never did me wrong

Daylight coming through the blinds
I can't believe we're here again
Yeah, it's over
I can see it in your eyes
But we're still together tonight

This doesn't mean that we're cool
I just needed to see you again
That doesn't make me a fool
Because I want you back
