

Dino Damage

Miniature Tigers

You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let go
'Cause if you hold on, they'll puncture your lungs
And separate your spine from your skull
You gotta let 'em go

You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let go
'Cause if you hold on, they'll bite your fingers off
And tear you limb from limb
It's second nature to them

Ahh
Ahh, uh-huh

You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let go
'Cause if you hold on, they'll tear your stomach open
And rip your guts out with they teeth
You gotta just release

Ahh, uh-huh
Ahh, uh-huh
Ahh, uh-huh
Ahh
