

I Can't Stop

Miniature Tigers

I met you at the discotheque
Red lips and leather jacket
You're easy to remember
I'm easy to forget

Go on, baby, break my heart tonight
'Cause I'll be waiting here for you

I can't stop
Ooh ooh
I can't stop

I never thought we'd be here
There's no use to pretend
We stumbled through the darkness
How could the morning end?

Go on baby, break this house apart
And I'll be waiting here for you

I can't stop
Ooh ooh
I can't stop

Baby, baby, come with me tonight
We can walk home in the darkness if you'd like

Yeah, yeah, I'm on fire for you
And there ain't a goddamn thing I can do

I can't stop
Ooh ooh
I can't stop
