Miniature Tigers

It was a pink day
I was in a nice way
When everything I knew
Turned grey
There was a man
Running down the street
In a wedding dress
Getting beat

I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh
I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all

I was alone
I was crying in the rain
My viking heart was wet
And in pain
There was a sign
Glowing down the street
Calling me away
To somewhere sweet

I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh
I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh

I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh
I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh
I'm thinking that I want it all
La la want it all, uh huh
