

Only Power Remains

Ministry of Magic

Verse 1 (Ryan)

The sky was ash to match the headstones
When he was born between gothic graves
Flesh of the servant willingly given
And the enemy forced to bleed

(Nina)

Please have mercy
I'll do anything

(VoldeMark)

Stand aside you silly girl!

Prechorus (Jason)

Elementary charms have gotten you this far
It's only a matter of time
Escaped him once but you will not again
Even in dreams he haunts you

Chorus (VoldeMark)

Love; your so called savior
Your iron shield
You're playing a dangerous game
Love; when all has ended
No good or evil
Only power remains

Verse 2 (Luke)

I am fire and fear and dry bones
The same charm flows in my veins
By seven anchors bound to breathing
That scars the seal on your fate

(Nina)

Please have mercy
I'll do anything

(VoldeMark)

Stand aside you silly girl!

Prechorus (Jason)

Elementary charms have gotten you this far
It's only a matter of time
Escaped him once but you will not again
Even in dreams he haunts you

Chorus (VoldeMark)

Love; your so called savior
Your iron shield
You're playing a dangerous game
Love; when all has ended
No good or evil
Only power remains

Bridge (VoldeMark)

You're alone
And you're mine

Time to die

Chorus (Nina)

He will survive

Some rules even you can't bend

You play a dangerous game

Strength sublime

Alive in his very skin

Love alone remains

Chorus (Nina w/ VoldeMark)

He will survive

Some rules even you can't bend

You play a dangerous game

Strength sublime

Alive in his very skin

Love alone remains
