We make a story

I miss your body
The tickling sound of your breath
I remember it faintly
I can't feel you

I miss your body
Your shiny hair

I remember it faintly
So where are you

Oh god
I miss you
Though it might be a different way
I'm borrowing the power of alcohol
I might call you by mistake
I don't know, my judgement is
Fading fading fading
Unconsciously, in the empty air
I'm drawing drawing drawing you
I must be crazy

No need for apologies
We're not Adam and Eve
In America,
They say it's better to be cool
You nah mean?
I remember your body body body
Your perfect proportions
Were almost a lie lie lie

I'm talkin' about your body
Talkin' about your legs
Talkin' about your lips
Talkin' about your
From your head to your toes
OH I'm talkin' about your body
Talkin' about your everything
But where are you?

I miss your body
The tickling sound of your breath
I remember it faintly
I can't feel you

I miss your body
Your shiny hair
I remember it faintly
So where are you

We were beautiful
We had such good chemistry
I miss you again
Your tattoo on your waist
I still have it in my studio
The bed back then
Come over if you're tired, just sleep over
I got everything you need

I'm dying cuz of you, you're a killer
My conscious is scolding, poking me
My friends call you my ex
But I wanna pronounce it
In a sexier way

I'm talkin' about your body
From your head to your toes

Talkin' about your everything
But where are you?

I miss your body

I miss your body
Your shiny hair
So where are you

Bawling on your body
Bawling on your body
Till we pass out
