Be Where You Are

Mint Condition

I stake my claim, to complain
Ain t no shame, girl how I feel for you
But don t be scared, but don t make this clear
Not from when you re pretty here
Close to me yeah girl it s true
In fact I wanna include you in my worries
Cause that would mean there s something here that s for real
I can t wait for you to hear the way about I m feeling
Mine this is real talk, my dear
I wanna be where you are,
Travel a million miles past the stars
10 000 leagues under the sea
Cause it don t matter, ain t nowhere too far
Wanna be, be, be, where you are
Wanna be, be, be, where you are
Such a surprise, not only you caught my eye

I used to think that maybe love makes you weak
Maybe too distracting, that s far away from the truth
I spent all of my early youth just to follow
My stupid friends, we didn t know any better
But you, helped me to focus and I
Never been stronger
I can do this forever, oh
See I wanna be where you are,
Travel a million miles past the stars
10 000 leagues under the sea
Cause it don t matter, ain t nowhere too far
Wanna be, be, be, where you are
Wanna be, be, be, where you are x 2
Wanna be, be, be, where you are
