

My Dear

Mint Condition

My dear.
My dear.
My dear.

Baby,
Come closer,
You don't have to be afraid.
I'll be like the gentle evenin' rain,
On your window pain.

Lay your head down.
Enjoy the candlelight.
Come and take a trip with me.
If you'll let yourself be free,
You'll fly away...

To a place where the touch equals ecstasy.
Stay with me tonight.
Will you fly away?
Will you fly away with me?

My dear,
I don't want to be the one...
Don't want to be the one to hurt you.
My dear,
I just want to be the one...
Just want to be the one to love you.
My dear...

Honey,
You feel so good;
Your skin's as soft as virgin silk.
I melt each time I get a whiff,
Of your sweet perfume.

Lay me down.
Let's enjoy the candlelight.
No need for us to fantasize.
Don't hold your feelings deep inside.
Just fly away...

To a place where touch equals ecstasy.
Stay with me tonight.
Will you fly away?
Will you fly away with me?
