

All As One

Miracle Of Sound

Stumble from the ashes
Lost enigmas in the dust
I cannot remember
Though they tell me that I must

Sky is torn asunder
Fear that breaks the brave
Will not drag me under
Climb out of the grave

Maker's sign or false divine
This mark of worth I wear
Hardened are these fateful scars I bear

Stand side by side
Carry all as one
We can bear this weight
Stand side by side
We won't come undone
For the hands that will carry us home are
Touched by fate

Hold on
Hold on to what you strive for
Hold on
Hold on to what you fight for
Hope

Get up and fight...
BREAK

Through the fade or leafy shade
Or scorching desert sands
Lift the people from their pain
Unite and take a stand

Breach into the future
Reach into the fade
Stamp out the abuser
Staff and bloody blade

Maker's breath or wind of death
It matters not to me
Be it one or none or synergy

Stand side by side
Carry all as one
We can bear this weight
Stand side by side
We won't come undone
For the hands that will carry us home are
Touched by fate

Hold on
Hold on

Stand side by side
Carry all as one
Stand side by side
We won't come undone
For the hands that will carry us home are
Touched by fate

Fight for your values
And fight for your friends
Fight through this blight
Find the light at the end
Through the age of the dragon
Through chaos and hate
The hands that will carry us home are touched by fate

Hold on
Hold on
Hope
