

The Savage Side Of Me

Miracle Of Sound

As the rain it sways in the old monsoon
And the pain it preys on an open wound
It's cold, it's cold, it's cold
Gotta break the strangehold

I have sealed myself I have cried my tears
Now I steel myself to defy my fears
And be strong, be strong, be strong
I am right where I belong

(Go to the savage side...)

And as the sun breaks through
Watching from a bird's eye view

And I won't lay down
There's a darker shade of courage
In the strength I've found
And it's letting loose the savage side of me

You can yearn for life to be simple or
You can learn from strife let it build your core
And refuse, refuse, refuse
Don't you bow to the abuse

And as the night falls blue
Watching from a bird's eye view

And I won't lay down
There's a darker shade of courage
In the strength I've found
And it's letting loose the savage side of me

Fall down at the edge of my mind
So much horror behind
Burning heat
Get back to my feet....

(Go to the savage side...)

And I won't lay down
There's a darker shade of courage
In the strength I've found
And it's letting loose the savage side of me
