

Pink Sunglasses

Miranda Lambert

I put 'em on whenever i sit down to read that paper can't explain the way they seem to work like magic i put 'em on to keep it positive don't mean to tell you how to feel but i'm a firm believer in the power of the plastic positive plastic

in my pink sunglasses
always makes a world look a little bit better
you can try 'em anytime you need a change of the weather for 9.99 im perfectly disguised when im walking by i wanna roll my eyes
pink sunglasses
ah oooo

i was looking for some tortiouse shells but these were on sale next to the disposable cameras tried 'em on and suddenly it occured to me a little debby felt a little more glamorous in the checkout line
don't i look good

ah
always makes a world look a little bit better
pink sunglasses
ah oooo
ah oooo

i could leave on a beach, at a bar, on a boat but they always reappear in the pocket of my coat i can't find 'em
they always find me

for 9.99 im completely polarized sometimes i accidentally go to bed at night
pink sunglasses
ah oooo
ah oooo
uh
