In The Sun

Miro Žbirka

For days I'm gonna hide
Knew I had to quit
I'm lying in the sun
Slowing down the speed

I'm a thousand miles away
Didn't tell them where
Everyone's at work
I know that it's not fair

I'm lying
Went to ground
No use trying
Can't be found

Staring at the sky
I see how deep it is
Need no wings to fly
Only want some peace

I'm sitting counting waves
That's my job to do
Empty sandy beach
Sleepy dreams with you

I'm lying
Just don't care

No use trying
Won't be there
Mighty time
Oh oh oh
Please, don't run
Pour some wine
Oh oh oh
Greet the dawn

I'm lying
Went to ground
No use trying
Can't be found

No use trying
Won't be there
Mighty time
Oh oh oh
Please, don't run
Pour some wine
Oh oh oh
Greet the dawn

For days I'm gonna hide
Knew I had to quit
I'm lying in the sun
Slowing down the speed

I'm sitting counting waves

That's my job to do
Empty sandy beach
Sleepy dreams with you

I'm lying
Just don't care

No use trying
Won't be there

That's my job to do
Empty sandy beach
Sleepy dreams with you

I'm lying
Just don't care
