

Source Of Fatal Addiction

Misery Inc.

Follow me to never ending grace, w ash away the stains of disgrace.
I can show how fast you can fall.
Safety life, just leave it all.

Silent servant, that is what you are.
You've sold your soul, you've gone too far.
Call my name, you've lost your game, totally.
It's all the same, goodbye to fame, no family.

I am your hate, your hell.
See thru my hell, where I dwell.

I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who creates your cage.
I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who feeds your rage.

Time has come to face your black dawn.
Look at you, a new wreck has born.

I am your hate, your hell.
See thru my hell, where I dwell.

I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who creates your cage.
I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who feeds your rage.

Throughout destruction, our beloved goal.
We find happiness in tragedy.

I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who creates your cage.
I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who feeds your rage.
I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who creates your cage.
I am the source of your fatal addiction,
I am the one who feeds your rage.
