

Zero

Misery Loves Co.

Need to let go, there's nothing to lose
You give and you take, the things you forsake
Everything I wanted
Nothing
I know we're running late and the future's way behind
No one by your side
Only leftovers remain and I know you feel the same
At least we know we need to get away

Zero
Nothing can stop us
Zero
Zero
Small town here, anything you want me to be

Ambition is low, as their fences grew high
If I can be anything, then why am I the same?

All I ever wanted
Nothing
Only leftovers remain and I know you feel the same
At least we know we need to get away

Zero
Nothing can stop us
Zero
I'll be your zero
Small town hero, anything you want me to be

Tear down my past, burn down my name
Nothing ever changes or goes away
Let's leave today, it's all the same
Nothing ever changes or goes away
