

Cascade Locks

Misery Signals

Once in time, we rode as one
All in time, we sang
Run with me
Stay right here beside me
While we collect our dreams
Together we'll do everything
So I put my trust in you
Then came days of pain
And everything flooded
Dark waters rose beneath me
Formless in form
Keep me open
With a closing gate before me
Holding onto the words of the past
May become a vision betrayed
Holding on
Holding onto the words of the past
May become a vision betrayed

Once again, we ride as one
All in time, we sing
Verses to recalim
The beloved star-filled gaze
And a chance, a chance to frame
Our own image of grace
A path back to the sun
Tomorrow starts today
Will yesterday fade?
Through the ashes
Through the ashes
Will blue stars appear again?
Blessed were the waters
Dividing the cascades
So if only for a moment
For one fleeting break
Embrace, embrace
