Misery Signals

I'd give my life for this to change
There's no excuse for what I've done
Now I must prove that I truly love
After all we said, how could I lie

Disappointed myself
Disappointed you, for what
Ask for forgiveness...

I'd give my life for this to change
There's no excuse for what I've done
Now I must prove that I truly love
After all we said, how could I lie

I'm so disappointed in myself
And so sorry for what I've done

All of that time I was so weak
Blinded by lust I could not think

If you give me one more chance
I promise I will not fail you

I will stay never betray
I will stay never betray

I am sorry regretting what I've done

I need to fix this, make you see
You need to know, that was not me
