

Some Dreams

Misery Signals

Tonight we float under blue moonlight
Silver spheres, and all is right
I tell myself
Tell myself
Be we must go away
Must pull the cover over this
And fly again
Far away
Brother, I wish so much could have been different
For so long our love was split so far apart
For I let life pull me away
The greatest failing of my days
And not my design
My love
Some dreams
Were beyond my reach
Some dreams
Some hopes
That I could not keep
Some dreams
I should have found a way
My heart fell that day
I should have found a way
All in time
All in time
All in time
So many lost days
Sorrow for all of them

To fly again
Far away
Brother, I wish so much could have been different
Between you and I
Did I give us everything?
Did I keep my promises?
Was this my greatest mistake?
Sometimes
This life, it pushes us away
At times this path is so unclear
The greatest failing of my days
Force your design
My love
Some dreams
Were beyond my reach
Some dreams
Some hopes
That I could not keep
Some hopes
Some dreams
Seize your days
Fly your way
Reach your dreams, reach your dreams
I lost
My heart
I lost my breath
I lost
My head

When I left you
When I left you
I love you
