

Talk About

Mishka

Well you talk about love
When your heart is in lust
And you talk about peace yeah yeah
When everyday you causin a fuss
Oh you talk of unity yeah
When not a soul do you trust
You talk about money yeah yeah
When everyday you get up and a cuss

All you fussin and you fussin and you fighting
Oh why oh why
All your hustlin and you're still not doing the right thing
Oh why oh why

Is it the human condition
To live in contradiction
To deny your intuition
For some style and fashion

Well lets expose and dismantle
The corrupted system
And we could just replace it all yeah
With some conscious living

We've had enough of the society
The one that perpetuates
The big white lie yeah yeah
Denial of the current state
Cause they said things are better
They said things have changed
They just blinded and numbed themselves yeah
And tried to put their hearts out of range

And they fussin and they fussin and they fightin
Oh why oh why
And they hustlin but they still not doing the right thing
Oh why oh why

You talk about justice
While the innocent are still incarcerated
Oh you talk about equality
When your mind is still so segregated
Born out your love of vanity
Cause it only turn you uncaring
Show some love for humanity
And this time play the game fairly

Brapp brapp bapp yeah
Barapp bapp bapp woh
Skinny dipp dipp dipp ahhaa yeah
Barappappappappapp woh o woh

Lord there so much brutality
We've all been witness to the slaughter
It's time to balance the reality
Or the fire will only burn hotter
Better straighen out your story

Cause it doesn't hold water
And be done with the hypocrisy
It won't wash with your sons or your daughters

All you fussin and you fussin and you fighting
Oh why oh why
All your hustlin and you're still not doing the right thing
Oh why oh why

All you fussin and you fussin and you fighting
Oh why oh why
All your hustlin and you're still not doing the right thing
Oh why oh why

Yeah you talk about love!
