

Death Is Not The End

Miss Fortune

Get up off the floor
Me? I'm moving quietly
Heading out the door
Used up unsurprisingly
There is nothing more
Think of all the irony
Silently
Defiantly

Lightning keeps strikin'
We sailed through the dark
Was it frightening?
You hearing the beat in your heart?
When we last said goodbye
I knew then that you didn't wanna die
Without changing their lives

It's not what you know
It's what you can prove

We're distracted by the blinding light
That carried me away like a thief in the night
Watch it burn to oblivion
It's your turn to learn
That death is not the end

Settling the score
Thanks to your anxiety
Gone forevermore
No use in sobriety
There is nothing more
Think of all the irony
Silently
Defiantly

Lightning keeps strikin'
We sailed through the dark
Was it frightening?
You hearin' the beat in your heart?
When we last said goodbye
I knew then that you didn't wanna die
Without changing their lives

It's not what you know
It's what you can prove

We're distracted by the blinding light
That carried me away like a thief in the night
Watch it burn to oblivion
It's your turn to learn
That death is not the end

And I'm sorry if I've terrified my friends
Will we ever meet again?
(Yeah, yeah)

Lightning keeps strikin'

We sailed through the dark
Was it frightening?
You hearing the beat in your heart?
When we last said goodbye
I knew then that you didn't wanna die
Without changing their lives

It's not what you know
It's what you can prove

We're distracted by the blinding light
That carried me away like a thief in the night
Watch it burn to oblivion
It's your turn to learn that death is not the end

And I'm sorry if I terrified my friends
