

Delusions of Grandeur

Miss Fortune

Set in stone
One night in the cold
I want it all
All for you

Said I wouldn't make it but it's said and done
Staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
I can't make you satisfied
Hope you go crazy in your sleep tonight

For delusions of grandeur
It's absurd
Down the wire, a cold womanizer
It's absurd

Set in stone
(Sure sounds like the sun's coming along)
(You know what I'm saying?)
One night in the cold
(What's going on here? What the fuck?)
(You said the sun wasn't coming out)
I want it all
(But there it is)
All for you

Said I wouldn't make it but it's said and done
Staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
I can't make you satisfied
Hope you go crazy in your sleep tonight

For delusions of grandeur
It's absurd
Down the wire, a cold womanizer
It's absurd

Set in stone
One night in the cold
I want it all
All for you

Said I wouldn't make it but it's said and done
Staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
I can't make you satisfied
Hope you go crazy in your sleep tonight

For delusions of grandeur
It's absurd
Down the wire, a cold womanizer
It's absurd
