

The Day The Sun Died

Miss Fortune

So poetic
How you brought the thunder down
I was so dependent
I barely even knew
The drug in me was you
I hope you panicked
When it all came crashin' down
Your whole aesthetic is tryna tear me down
I don't need you around

Condescend me
While I'm layin' in this bed of misery
Why do you hate me?
I'm sick of cryin' up at night
Waited for you to take my side
I need you to save me

So don't cry
Cause the sun died
I'm seein' things from a new perspective
See the sunrise
For the last time
I wanna be more than you expected

So don't cry
Cause the sun died
I'm seein' things from a new perspective
See the sunrise
For the last time
I want to be more than you're expectin' me to be

So narcissistic, the hypocrisy
What ever happened to camaraderie?
These possibilities are all I've seen
A meticulous thing
Just wanting to be sane

Condescend me
While I'm layin' in this bed of misery
Why do you hate me?
I'm sick of cryin' up at night
Waited for you to take my side
I need you to save me

So don't cry
Cause the sun died
I'm seein' things from a new perspective
See the sunrise
For the last time
I wanna be more than you expected

So don't cry
Cause the sun died
I'm seein' things from a new perspective
See the sunrise
For the last time
I wanna be more than you're expectin' me to be
