

The Hardest Part is Past Us

Miss Fortune

Tryna make it to the next sunrise
Thought you had it figured out this time
Lately things have been so different
I'm not sure what you're feeling inside

You said it's over but you already lied
I know you're tired of the same old line
So why do you keep on insisting?
And coming back when you know you're not mine?

I won't give up
But I'm losin' every day
Define your love
I can't look you in your face

I'm not sorry and I won't apologize
I'm feelin' feelings I don't think you empathize
But lately things have been so different
I'm not sure what you're feelin' inside
You're rippin' wings off every butterfly
You're doin' dirt, can we reach a compromise?
This life's what we've been gifted
It's too short to be cheated and lied
(It's too short to be cheated and lied)

I won't give up
But I'm losin' every day
Define your love
I can't look you in your face

I won't give up
But I'm losin' every day
Define your love
I can't look you in your face
