

Tunnel of Delulu

Miss Fortune

Was it all just a game you played?
A puppet master pulling strings?
Leading me astray?
(Leading me astray)
I was a pawn in a twisted game
But now I see through your charade
The truth comes crashing in like waves
Now I'm breaking free from the chains you've made

In the shadow of deceit
I have found my way
Lost in a maze
Of things that you say

You're face to face
With back to back failure
I feel the pain
It's all too familiar
It's menacing what they parade
(How do I stay sane?)
I know you said I'm better off dead
Imagine what I could've been
Now I've got nothing left to lose
In the tunnel of delulu-lu

No more delusions, no more lies
I'll spread my wings and take to the skies
I'll find the truth in the depths of the pain
Now the light is showing your hidden face

In the shadow of deceit
I have found my way
Lost in a maze
Of things that you say

You're face to face
With back to back failure
I feel the pain
It's all too familiar
It's menacing what they parade
(How do I stay sane?)
I know you said I'm better off dead
Imagine what I could've been
Now I've got nothing left to lose
In the tunnel of delulu-lu

You're face to face
With back to back failure
I feel the pain
It's all too familiar
It's menacing what they parade
(How do I stay sane?)
I know you said I'm better off dead
Imagine what I could've been
Now I've got nothing left to lose
In the tunnel of delulu-lu
