

Wedding Night

Miss Fortune

Show me a life worth fighting for
I'm seeing the signs that I can't ignore
When all along, I've walked the line
This life I've been leading is such a lie
I've wanted more
Than you could have given me
But now I'm sure
This life's worth living
A wedding night
If only I'm right
It was written in the stars
Everybody needs love
f*ck a black heart in a white dress
Show me what you're made of
I've wanted more
Than you could have given me
But now I'm sure
This life's worth living
Show me a life worth fighting for
I'm seeing the signs that I can't ignore
When all along I have walked the line
This life I've been leading is such a lie

If only I'm right
It was written in the stars
Everybody needs love
f*ck a black heart in a white dress
Show me what you're made of
I really hope that you find your God
In search of peace
'Cause it's been gone for so long
I hope the shame inside will serve you raw
You've let your mind in the way
With weapons in hand, like you like to
I've wanted more
Than you could have given me
But now I'm sure
This life's worth living
Show me a life worth fighting for
I'm seeing the signs that I can't ignore
When all along I have walked the line
This life I've been leading is such a lie
