

Time Machine

Miss Li

Found the ring when I was looking through books under my bed
It felt like I could almost die there
From all the feelings of regret
If I only had a time machine
I would go back to you
And tell you the truth

It was underneath the photos of us smiling through the dust
And it looks like we were so happy but somehow I still screwed it up
If I only had a time machine
I would go back to you
And I'd be your fool

I'm wondering why did it end the way it ended

And you moved on like it was nothing
I think I'll ever understand
How you moved in with her so quickly
'Fore I even got a second chance
If I only had a time machine
I would go back to you
And tell you what I've been through

I'm wondering, is she everything you wanted
That I couldn't give to you
Is she way less complicated?
Does she make your favorite food?
If I only had a time machine
I would go back to you
But this time I won't lose

I'm wondering why did it end the way it ended
And you're wondering now if my heart is mending

Damn, I still love you
Oh yeah, I still love you
Like I've never loved anyone, I still love you
So how did we manage to mess it all up?
Are we totally lost? Totally lost?

I guess we are
Yeah, I guess we are
'Cause now I have this ring but it's missing its finger
No rice has been thrown and no church bells are ringing
Yeah, how did we manage to mess it all up?
Are we totally lost? Totally lost?

If I only had a time machine
If I only had a, if I only had a

Damn, I still love you
Oh yeah, I still love you
Like I've never loved anyone, I still love you
So how did we manage to mess it all up?
Are we totally lost?
Aah
Aah

If I only had a time machine
I would go back to you
And say I do
