

Swallow Your Teeth

Miss May I

Every single night I wonder is this how it's supposed to be
You struggle every day when you [?] for me
You're not a God, I'm not your slave
You can try but I will not obey
I will not obey
You're not a God, I'm not your slave
And you can try but there's no controlling me

I've had enough, the shit you preach
You talk too much, swallow your teeth
Yeah

Every single night I wonder is this how it's supposed to be
The rich are getting richer, the poor are meant to bleed
Is there a choice? Is there a way?
I won't be your prey
I won't be your prey
Is there a choice? Is there a way?
We're making one today

I've had enough, the shit you preach
You talk too much, swallow your teeth
(Swallow your teeth, swallow your teeth)

With so much hate, you drown in shame
The angels cry but you won't change
You built your world on fear and pain
The snakes will surely sing your name

Oh, [?]
We have all been following
[?] you motherfucker
You motherfucker!
We won't be your prey

I've had enough, the shit you preach
You talk too much, swallow your teeth

With so much hate, you drown in shame
The angels cry but you won't change
You built your world on fear and pain
The snakes will surely sing your name
The snakes will surely sing your name
The snakes will surely sing your name
