

Castles In The Sand

Missing Persons

All of your delusions of grandeur
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
Afraid to know where you are going
You haven't seen anything yet
Promises, secrets and whispers
All the broken hearts that you slayed
Licentious illicit fantasy
While your castles in the sand swept away

Now your castles in the sand swept away
Now your castles in the sand swept away

All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane
All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane
All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane

All of your delusions of grandeur
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
Afraid to know where you are going
You haven't seen anything yet
Promises, secrets and whispers
All the broken hearts that you slayed
Licentious illicit fantasy
While your castles in the sand swept away

Now your castles in the sand swept away
Now your castles in the sand swept away

All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane
All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane
All your vanity, leads to insanity
So you know you're vain, driving yourself insane

All of your delusions of grandeur
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
The conscience doesn't seem to forget
