

Hollywood Lie

Missing Persons

Glowing bright, in black and white
Alone at night, an empty fright
Disregards what's in the cards
Roll the dice, give my regards

Died right in front of my eyes
Living like a Hollywood lie
Living life a perfect disguise
Questions answers no replies

Second thoughts keep creepin' in Creature feature alone again
You played the fool for fame and wealth
You always end up by yourself

Died right in front of my eyes
Living like a Hollywood lie
Living life a perfect disguise
Questions answers no replies
