

The wise man spoke his very last words
Took his last breath and flew like the birds
No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane

Where your soul goes
Your angels will follow
Where your soul goes
Your angels will follow

No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane

The wise man spoke his very last words
The wise man spoke his very last words

After all is said and done
All the plans, they just disappear
All the scripture, all the prayers
And all you didn't do
Slips into darkness
Slips into sheer darkness

No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane

The wise man spoke his very last words
The wise man spoke his very last words

No more misery, no more pain
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
Luck is for the lucky and the world's gone insane
