This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change
This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change

Well you didn't wake up this morning 'cause you didn't go to be d

You were watching the whites of your eyes turn red
The calendar on your wall was ticking the days off
You've been reading some old letters
You smile and think how much you've changed
All the money in the world couldn't buy back those days

You pull back the curtain
And the sun falls into your eyes
You watch a plane flying
Across a clear blue sky

This is the day, that your life is gonna change
This is the day, that things fall into place

You could have done anything, if you wanted to
All your friends and family think that you're lucky
But the side of you they'll never see
Is when you're left alone with your memories
That hold your life together, like glue

This is the day, that your life is gonna change
This is the day, that things fall into place

You pull back the curtain
And the sun falls into your eyes
You watch a plane flying
Across a clear blue sky

This is the day, that your life is gonna change
This is the day, that things fall into place

This is the day, that your life is gonna change
This is the day, that things fall into place
That things fall into place

This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change
This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change
This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change
This is the day (This is the day) your life will surely change
