

Do You Still Love Me Like You Used To?

MISSIO

Did you notice?
Did you notice when I went away?
Did you forget?
Did you forget the plans we made?
I am tired, too
It's the distance that's dragging us down
I'm not blaming you
It's like we're screaming with no sound

Do you, do you still love me like you used to?
Do you, do you, do you?
Do you, do you still need me like you used to?
Do you, do you, do you?

We are not perfect
Always raging in our own wars
But we're not dead
And we don't need to settle the score
It's like we're all fucked up, like it's not enough
And we wanna let it go
But it's worth it
This is worth what we're fighting for
I'm fighting for you

Are you hiding?
Are you hiding from the truth?
'Cause I'm lonely
I am lonely when you're in the room
And I'm tired, too
It's the distance that's dragging us down
I'm not blaming you
It's like we're screaming with no sound

Do you, do you still love me like you used to?
Do you, do you, do you?
Do you, do you still need me like you used to?
Do you, do you, do you?

We are not perfect
Always raging in our own wars
But we're not dead
And we don't need to settle the score
It's like we're all fucked up, like it's not enough
And we wanna let it go
But it's worth it
This is worth what we're fighting for
I'm fighting for you

I'm fighting for you
Yes, I'm fighting for you
I'm fighting for you
Oh, I'm fighting for you
I'm fighting for you
I'm fighting for you
I'm fighting for you

Do you, do you still love me like you used to?

Do you, do you, do you?

Do you, do you still need me like you used to?

Do you, do you, do you?
