

Kamikazee (Stripped)

MISSIO

I am a kamikazee, I am so freaky
Freakier than a bayonet set on fire
That's desire

I am a kamikazee, I am so easy
Easier than a bomber in the third world war
That's for sure

I shouldn't want it, but I want it
And it's killing my black soul

I want money and power
And champagne and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame

I want money and power
And champagne and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame

I am a kamikazee, I am so guilty
Guiltier than a liquored-up mistress who Runs to you

I am a kamikazee, I am so lonely
Lonelier than a patriarch labeled liar
Crushed empire

I shouldn't want it, but I want it
And it's killing my black soul

I want money and power
And champagne and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame

I want money and power
And champagne and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame, so

I want money and power, and champagne, and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame
I want money and power, and champagne, and fame
I want money and power
My black heart's to blame

I want power
I want power champagne
I want power fame

Money and power
Money and power

I want money and power, and champagne, and fame

I want money and power
My black heart's to blame

I want money
And I want power
And I want money
And I want power
