

I am dangerous, cool, and collected
Confident, with style, and respected
Little bit' of suppressed rage and aggression
I can't let it go

I'm a legend, you're an imposter
Take a look I'm first on the roster
Try to take the lead I swear it'll cost ya
Time to let ya' know

I'm a winner
Real talk, money bags bigger
Head held high, I'm a champion with some shimmer

I'm a winner
Real talk, ain't no beginner
Step to the throne, I'm a king not a quitter
Ayyee

Smile my way through life like it's easy
Most days I can't fake what I'm feeling
I have had success but still pretty needy
I can't let it go

I've got skill don't need to be lucky
I like winning, fame, and the money
Try to take the lead I swear I will own ya
Time to let you know

Step to the throne we work hard for this
