

Wolves

MISSIO

I'm in Amsterdam, first time in the land
Feeling kinda' sexy that's right, I am with the band
No idea how we made it here? Convinced it's all a joke
These Dutch girls say otherwise but they don't know I'm broke

Mmkay, I've seen some shit and I've taken hits, but I've learned to let it all go
I've fucked around and I've made mistakes, but I love what I now know
Opportunities, just taking fees, hyperbole is my flow
Bitch I make my legacy, I'm countin' threes when I throw

Aye, somebody turned the lights out
Aye, the wolves are watching (Damn)
Aye, this world will eat your heart out
Aye, the wolves are watching (Damn)

I'm in New Orleans, feels like I'm asleep
This city's kind of evil and I need to find caffeine
Rolling J's in alleyways, no care on this earth
These drunk girls getting litty now cause they don't know their worth

Mmkay, I feel the need I gotta' buy some green so I can let it all go
I pull my cash and then I see that cap and he tells me he's 5-0
Why am I in cuffs? What the fuck is up? I have every right to know
I wasn't even carrying so I should be free to go

Aye, somebody turned the lights out
Aye, the wolves are watching (Damn)
Aye, this world will eat your heart out
Aye, the wolves are watching (Damn)

Wolves are comin'
You are yet another wolf who eats his kids for breakfast
Listen here you mother fucker stop being so selfish
Can I get a light from the backseat?
I said, can I get a light from the backseat?

Aye, somebody turned the lights out
Aye, the wolves are watching
Aye, this world will eat your heart out
Aye, the wolves are watching
Aye, somebody turned the lights out
Aye, the wolves are watching
Aye, this world will eat your heart out

Aye, the wolves are watching
