Sugarcane

Missy Higgins

Baby ballerina's hiding Somewhere in the corner Where the shadow wraps around her And our torches cannot find her

She will stay there till the morning Crawl behind us as we are yawning And she will leave our games To never be the same

So grow tall, sugarcane
Eat that soil, drink the rain
But know they'll chase you
If you play their little games
So run, run fast, sugarcane

You see my peep show booth is handy There's a one way only mirror So I can dance here with my hair down But I don't see if you get bitter

And there's a button right beside me If I happen to want a wall to hide me If only the ballerina had one too

So grow tall, sugarcane
Eat that soil, drink the rain
But know they'll chase you
If you play their little games
So run, run fast, sugarcane

And she said, "Always be afraid" Yes, she said, "Always be afraid"

So grow tall, sugarcane
Eat that soil, drink the rain
But know they'll chase you
If you play their little games
So run, run fast, sugarcane

Yeah, you'd better run, run fast, sugarcane Yeah, you'd better run, run fast sugarcane