

Why I Still Love You

Missy 'Misdemeanor' Elliott

This is a Missy Elliott exclusive

I keep coming back to you
And I asked myself why
Hey, guess I love that nigga too much
Just a waste of my time
I go way out my way
Making you satisfied
But it don't matter what how I tried
You don't care how I be feeling inside
You gon' make me tell you kiss my ass goodbye

Why the hell I still love you?
Why the hell I still love you baby?
I feel like I can't trust you
And I feel like I can't trust you, no, no
Cheating on me, why must you?

Aye, 'cause you do me wrong
And you don't do me right (Hey hey)
I'll fight you and your chick on sight (Hey hey)
Don't play with me 'cause baby I'm 'bout that life
Boy you know I get jealous and I don't like to share
Hey, I love you so much to lose myself
I done tried and I tried, oh
I don't know what to do
You walking 'round got the girls thinking you cute (Hey hey)
I'ma do me, nigga you can go and do you (Hey hey)
Better not play me 'cause you gon' get the boot

Why the hell I still love you?
Why the hell I still love you, love you baby?
Feel like I can not trust you
And I feel like I can't trust you, can't trust you, no
Cheating on me, why must you?

It don't matter how hard
It don't matter baby how hard I tried (Hey hey)
You don't care how I be feeling inside (Hey hey)
You gon' realize when I find me a new guy
You can go 'head, I'm gon' be alright
Pay me own bills, I'm gon' be alright
All by myself, I'm gon' be alright
I don't need you, I'm gon' be alright
Stay where you at, I'm gon' be alright
Don't try to come back, I'm gon' be alright
Be on your way, I'm gon' be alright
Stay out my face, I'm gon' be alright
