

Wrongside

MisterWives

I'm getting older, but the fears don't change
It's all the same, except my age
I wanna know if I can live a day
Without the shame of my mistakes

Hold them close to my chest
Replay every mistep
But I'm doing my best
Downward spiral again
Losing touch with my friends
Call them back when this ends

Cause I'm tongue tied
Tryin' to tell myself I'm alright
Always running on the
Wrong side of my mind
It's been a long ride
Spinning circles and I'm so tired
Always running on the
Wrong side of my mind

Sometimes I wonder if I'd be happy
If I gave up on of all of these dreams
The line is getting so fuckin' blurry
With what I want and what I need

Hold them close to my chest
Replay every mistep
But I'm doing my best
Downward spiral again
Losing touch with my friends
Call them back when this ends

Cause I'm tongue tied
Tryin' to tell myself I'm alright
Always running on the
Wrong side of my mind
It's been a long ride
Spinning circles and I'm so tired
Always running on the
Wrong side of my mind

Did all these out of reach
And it used to never be
How'd I get so far deep
The blame is on me
I'm my worst enemy

Always tongue tied
Tryin' to tell myself I'm alright
Always running on the
Wrong side of my mind
It's been a long ride
Spinning circles and I'm so tired
Always running on the
