

Do You Know the Way You Move Me

Misty Edwards

And I hear heaven reply
As He's singing over you
I hear heaven reply. He said...

Do you know
how you've caught my eye?
In the secret place
Where you chose to die

He says... Do you know
How you've caught my eye?
In the secret place
Where you chose to be mine

(He says) I saw you there, longing to be mine
Even in the night time,
I saw you reaching out to me
And you said God,
"my flesh is weak but my spirit is willing"
Help me Love.

And I heard your prayer,
I saw you and all your friends; even your family say
"why don't you just walk away?"
Sometimes everything inside of you says
"To go the other way"
But don't give up, No! No!, Don't give in.
In the dark night of faith
You kept on pressing in.

Oh beloved, Do you know
How you've caught my eye?
In the secret place
Where you chose to die

Do you know
How you've caught my eye?
In the secret place
Where you chose to be mine.

Cos, I remember the vows of your youth
And I remeber you, when you were just a child
And you look up to sky and you said
If you really there God, I wanna love you.
And saw creation and something in your heart said
I wanna be His.

And even in the middle of nowhere
where you had to stand alone ...Still.
You said I belong to Him and He belong to me.

And I saw you turned away some of those relationships
And even when your heart broke, you said...
I want you more Lord, I want you more than that.

And I saw you denying your flesh
When everything inside of you is screaming.

You said No. I want to show love
And you fought the fight.
Even when you cannot see, still you believe.

And I say, I say Angels, Oh Angels, Oh Angels
Look and see! Look and See
In that dark night of faith they're still loving me.
He says Angels, Oh Angels
Look and see. She said Yes; He said Yes

And He spins around wildly rejoicing
Like a bridegroom will rejoice over a bride
She said Yes; He said Yes
And He rejoices about us like a bridegroom
Can you hear the voice of the Bridegroom
As He sings over you; as He sings over you
Rejoicing. Oh

Do you know the way you've move me.
You've ravished my heart with one glance of your eye
You move my heart; Turn all away for me
Your rising overwhelms me,
Your beautiful tears as lovely as Jerusalem
Oh, as soon as your Love's banner rises, overwhelm me.

Do you know the way you've move me.
