

fade to black

Mitch James

I haven't seen a sunrise in a long time
That paints the sky a purple hue
I barely talk to my mum
I feel I've been a bad son
Worst thing is I got no excuse

And we treat time like it's endless
We take love for granted too long
Where do we go wrong

Free the chains upon the past
Feel it all and let it pass
Cause life's a movie
You let it all play out, but don't look back
Cause it fades to black
So fast

Is there anyway to know if
This is gonna be a moment
That I'll hold close when I'm called home
If the mirror is a stranger
And you're sinking like a ship in the sea
Well maybe soon, or maybe later
You'll be exactly where you're supposed to be

And we treat time like it's endless
We take love for granted too long
Where did we go wrong

Free the chains upon the past
Feel it all and let it pass
Cause life's a movie
You let it all play out, but don't look back
Cause it fades to black
So fast

Ooh, ooh

Cause it fades to black
So fast
