

It's just you standing all alone in the snow without me
Somewhere between here and Tokyo
And did you tell whoever took the photo you were thinking about me?
'Cause you were thinking about me, I hope
That you've been doing the same things I have
And you've been going as crazy
As crazy as I am

I don't know why I do this
It don't make no sense
It feels like I'm losing you over and over again
Still every night I end up on Instagram
Looking at pictures of you
And that picture of you in Japan

Every time that you pick up your phone
Are you hoping that I called
Are you feeling alone
Are you thinking of the way we used to be
Have you been staying up each and every night
Are you wide awake with a picture of me, No

Have you been doing the same things as I have
Have you been going as crazy, as crazy as I am

I don't know why I do this
It don't make no sense
It feels like I'm losing you over and over again
Still every night I end up on Instagram
Looking at pictures of you
And that picture of you in Japan

Oh, everywhere you go
I don't wanna know
'Cause I can't let it go
No I can't let you go

I don't know why I do this
It don't make no sense
It feels like I'm losing you over and over again
Still every night I end up on Instagram
Looking at pictures of you
And that picture of you in Japan

I don't know why I do this
It don't make no sense
It feels like I'm losing you over and over again
Still every night I end up on Instagram
Looking at pictures of you
And that picture of you in Japan

You and I, yeah we tried
That's right, it don't come easy
'Cause every time I see your eyes
I can't seem to shake that feeling

It's just you standing all alone in the snow without me

Somewhere between here and Tokyo
